Financial Support

We are most grateful to the following organisations for their support and financial contributions:- The Chiltern U3A, who kindly gave donations from individuals and activity groups, plus surplus funds from organised events; the Amersham Rotary Club; Barnett Waddingham & Co; the Village Mangal Restaurant (Amersham) and many individuals.

Organisations which have kindly supplied information and assistance

We are particularly grateful to Amersham Museum (Curator Emily Toettcher, Christine Standing, Dave Morris and Roy Atkinson) for their generous support and help with chapters of the book, as well as supplying photographs and copies of documents. The museum also placed some of our work in their exhibition and will collaborate in recording the digital version of the book.

“The Museum of the Soldiers of Oxfordshire Trust”, Woodstock. We are grateful to the curator Ursula Corcoran and a number of researchers who have helped in providing information about our soldiers who fought and died whilst serving with the Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry.

We are grateful to June and Peter Underwood of “Buckinghamshire Remembers”. They have been very helpful in providing information and liaising with families who have donated photographs.

The Aviation Archaeology Museum – (thanks to Mark Evans); Berkhamsted School; Dr Challoner’s Grammar School, Amersham; Merchant Taylors’ School, Northwood; St Paul’s Cathedral School; Watford Grammar School for Boys; Lloyds Bank Archive; Amersham Town Council (Janette Plasted); Institution of Civil Engineers; St Andrews Parish Church, Wootton Rivers, Wilts (Churchwarden Anne Swift); The Master and Fellows of Christ’s College Cambridge and Amelie Roper and Charlotte Byrne of Christ’s College Library; Paul Reed, historian, for his photographs of The Pozières Memorial and engravings of names; The Queen’s Own Royal West Regimental Museum; The Amersham and District Royal British Legion – (thanks to Bob Higgins, the Secretary); Mick McCann of British War Graves; Terry Heard of World War One Cemeteries.

Our thanks also to Rohan Bolton of EFS Consultants for producing the index to this volume.

We extend our sincere apologies to anyone we have inadvertently left out of the lists, but whose help was appreciated nonetheless.

The Researchers

Chiltern U3A would like to thank the sixteen members of the Chiltern U3A Family History Groups who put a tremendous effort into research for the project, while acknowledging that they got a great deal of satisfaction and enjoyment from their involvement. We are also grateful to the Chiltern U3A membership, the local community, Amersham Museum and the Heritage Lottery Fund for their generous contributions, and for giving us the opportunity, help and understanding to bring the WW1 project "Amersham Remembers" to its conclusion.

Disclaimer

There are instances where we have been unable to trace or contact the copyright holder. If notified the publisher will be pleased to rectify any errors or omissions at the earliest opportunity.

During the period over which the book was being researched, additional data has been published on-line and new information and photographs have been presented by family members of the servicemen. The research team has endeavoured to include as much of the new information as possible and it is complete up to the date of going to print.

The research team acknowledges that some of the images used in the book are of a poor quality, but it was decided to include them as contributions to the record.
