

Amersham Museum Talks

- A fee of £75 is charged for groups of 30 or more and £50 for smaller groups payable to Amersham Museum.
- All talks last approximately 50 minutes but can be shortened if necessary.
- Contact for queries and bookings: info@amershammuseum.org 01494 723700

Talks offered by Alison Bailey

Arts & Crafts Amersham – Early 20th century architecture tour of Amersham, focusing particularly on the work of John Harold Kennard

Modernism in Metroland – modernist architecture in Amersham

Amersham's 20th Century Architecture – combines Arts & Crafts and Modernism

Revolting Women – our local suffrage campaigners and their contribution to the First World War

Homefires and Havens – Amersham during the Second World War

Émigré Artists during WWII – Amersham was a haven for émigré artists during the Second World War particularly 3 women: a sculptor, photographer and Expressionist painter

The Wellers, Amersham's Brewing Family

Louise Jopling, celebrity Victorian portrait painter

From Market Town to Metroland, a history of shopping in Amersham

The History of Amersham through Placenames

Talks offered by Dr Peter Borrows

Tudor Amersham

The Lollards of Amersham

An ordinary house - the history of Troye Cottage

Talk offered by Peter Healy

George Ward - Amersham's photographer

Edward Watkin, the Wembley Tower & the First Channel Tunnel

Talk offered by Ralph Hilsdon

Metro-Land and the birth of commuting

Talks offered by Briony Hudson

Sickness and Health in the Amersham area

Behind the Scenes at Amersham Museum

"Glamersham" - having fun and getting dressed up in the local area's past